Dear Kevin:

It is difficult to find the words to express how enthralled the audience at the Hillside Public Library was during your April 3rd presentation on “Astronomy for Everyone: Size and Scale of the Universe.”

From the smallest child to the mature adult, all were transported by you to the wonders of the galaxy – and they enjoyed every minute of the journey! Of course, the opportunity (despite a day – and evening – of rain and clouds) to actually see the moon and Rings of Saturn up close on the telescope was the perfect ending to the program.

Your incredible knowledge of this subject fascinated all. Your ability to communicate this knowledge, plus your contagious enthusiasm, lent greatly to everyone’s enjoyment of the presentation.

We appreciate being able to work with you to serve our community and look forward to welcoming you back in the future.

With best regards,

Sincerely,
